one or more officers of the Company the authority to make grants of equity awards to any officer or employee of the Company other than the Company's executive officers (as defined in paragraph 2 above) and non-administrative direct reports to the CEO under the Company's equity compensation plans as the Committee deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms of such plan; provided that such delegation shall be made by written resolution of the Committee, in compliance with the plan and the laws of the state of the Company's incorporation, which shall establish the terms and criteria for, and the restrictions on, such delegation.

- 7) Periodically review and approve a peer group of companies for executive compensation competitive comparisons, approve target pay and performance objectives against this group (and broader industry references), and monitor the Company's executive compensation levels and its performance relative to this group.

- 10) Periodically review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to non-employee director compensation.
- 11) Review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the approval, amendment, and termination of the Company's equity-based incentive plans subject, where required, to shareholder approval, and administer such plans in accordance with the responsibilities assigned to the Committee under any and all such plans.
- 12) Review the Company's incentive compensation programs and arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation, and evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk.

- 17) Review and assess the management succession plan for all executive officers and members of the executive management team other than the CEO and annually review such assessment with the Board. While the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board about CEO succession planning, they shall do so in close coordination with the Committee.
- 18) Review, approve the implementation or revision of and administer any clawback policies allowing the Company to recoup compensation paid to executive officers and other employees.

The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to the compensation advisers retained by the Committee, as well as all ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties as determined by the Committee.

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to form and delegate authority to subcommittees (comprised only of Committee members), in furtherance of the Committee's responsibilities. Such authority shall be in addition to the specific delegation authority with respect to grants of equity awards set forth in paragraph 6 under "Authorities and Responsibilities" above.

The Committee shall, on an annual basis, review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and conduct an evaluation of the Committee's own performance during such past year.
